College Prep Composition (10th-12th)

B1098 10:30 AM

Carrie Nelson

This class will assist in preparing students for college research papers. Classes such as government, speech, history, etc. often require research papers. In addition, this class prepares students to do presentations. This research paper will utilize controversial topics such as illegal immigration, immigration, abortion, global warming, and evolution vs. intelligent design. Christian websites and materials will be utilized so that students will have a clear picture of the Biblical response to the current humanistic culture. Students may be able to reuse this research paper in college. The class will use teacher prepared materials, Christian apologetics, intelligent design, Christian websites, the same college essay textbook, Patterns for College Writing, etc. Critical thinking skills will be encouraged comparing and contrasting Christian vs. secular humanism world views. A daily short answer quiz will be given covering the homework reading and daily class outline. STUDENTS WILL BE DOING ONE PAGE PER WEEK. Ideally, one page of the research paper will take about one hour to research and about one hour to write. Common grammar errors will be reviewed.

Hwk: About 3 hrs/week reading, writing, researching and correcting. Each student will receive a weekly checklist for a parent to sign.

Defending the Faith; Controversial Moral Issues (7th-12th)

M1078 10:30 AM

Shawn Paschal

As a Christian where do I stand on the big moral dilemmas facing our culture such as homosexuality, pornography, low birth rates, abortion/euphansia, etc.? Many Christians agree these issues are morally problematic but are we confident we can explain why? Do we have the biblical answers? Furthermore, can we explain the social and cultural consequences of these issues? In this course we will explore moral issues topically from a biblical perspective. Assigned readings and class debates will play a prominent role in this class. The readings will come from a variety of sources but no textbook is needed.

Literature- a Wrinkle In Time (7th-12th)

M1397 01:00 PM

Joanne Palmer

"A Wrinkle in Time" is a science fantasy novel by Madeleine L'Engle, first published in 1962. The story revolves around a young girl whose father, a government scientist, has gone missing after working on a mysterious project called a tesseract. It is the first in L'Engle's series of books about the Murry and O'Keefe families. Although A Wrinkle in Time can be classified as science fiction, it also contains elements of fantasy, philosophy, Biblical truth, and a glimpse of the cosmic battle between the forces of good and evil waged in a distant galaxy.

There will be weekly reading, with writing assignments (questions to answer) and a couple of quizzes, too. Homework will take 60 min weekly....depending on the student.

Cost: $60.00

Prerequisite:

Class Fees: $7.00 Covers copies.

Intelligent Design (9th-12th)

M1497 02:00 PM

Carrie Nelson

Don't let your high schooler leave home without the facts of his/her faith! This class will utilize the DVD series from Focus on the Family, "Does God Exist?" The material is produced by Dr. Steven Meyer who champions intelligent design. This material provides evidence for a Creator and gives insights from philosophy, cosmology and biology to help students stand strong and engage intellectually with their peers and professors. Many college students stop going to church during their college years and often do not return. This course strengthens the foundation of the Christian faith prior to leaving for college. We will watch a DVD then discuss it. Discussion is a great way to develop critical thinking skills. Additionally, this semester, will use other apologetic DVDs such as Lee Strobel's "Case for the Creator."

Reading-The King of the Wind (Adv. 5th-6th)

W1059 10:00 AM

Michelle Anderson

This is a great, adventurous book for both boys and girls, by Marguerite Henry. The story begins in Morocco with a young Arab boy and a horse, and it shares their loyal friendship and journey they take together.

This advanced class will move at a faster pace than the regular reading class, and we will dive deeper into the book and characters. The TLP curriculum we will be using covers reading comprehension, spelling, vocabulary, and some writing. We will have additional activities, games and writing assignments to reinforce these skills and to challenge the students to reach their potential.

Hwk: 1 hr/class hr (depending on reading speed) consists of reading the story each week, completing the Homework Packet and any additional assignments. Students will answer written comprehension questions, practice spelling, and vocabulary.

Parents are expected to oversee the completion of their student's homework, grade and attach their weekly spelling pre-test. All addt grading will be done by the teacher or VP.

Cost: $60.00

Prerequisite: Must have previously taken one of Mrs. Anderson's reading classes or be prepared for advance level work and pace.

Class Fees: $24.00 Covers TLP Student Packet, book (to keep), copies, supplies and rewards.

Supplies: 1" 3 Ring Binder for curriculum, 3x5 cards, a spiral or composition notebook used only for the reading class.
